

THE HIGH DESERT PALETTE CONTRIBUTIONS

The High Desert Palette is committed to showcasing local artists and creatives in all mediums. In everything from profile articles to creative writing contributions, we strive to display a sense of pride in local talent.

Our editors are interested in articles that promote local talent as well as provide insightful stories about artists and their journeys. We are also looking for visually oriented artwork and creative writings that can be easily digested and enjoyed by our local audience.

SUBMISSIONS

Written submissions must be sent to willcoxtheater.com for review. Submission deadlines for each submission is one month prior to desired publication (i.e. the first of January in the instance of the February issue etc.). Please allow for two weeks time before a confirmation or revision request email is sent.

Featured Article:

A profile article of an artist or creative in Willcox and the surrounding area. The article should focus on the human interest of a person. They should discuss who the person is, their work, and advice they might give to creatives pursuing similar goals.

- Featured articles must be 600-750 words long.
- May include promotional material for the subject of the article in the form of links and contact information. This is encouraged, but not required.
- Received submissions will be reviewed by the editorial board. Accepted submissions will receive up to $50 depending on article length and quality as well as $10 for each accepted photograph provided. (If no photographs are provided or they are not accepted we will arrange for photographs to be taken).

Art Look:

Photographs of a featured artists visually oriented work. This can be anything from paintings to original photography, stained glass work to metal sculptures.

- Must include a short bio, 50 - 150 words in length.
- Must include a profile image of the artist.
- Must include 8-10 images of artwork to be reviewed by the magazine Art Director for layout design.

Creative Writing Contributions:

Creative writing contribution including genre fiction in the form of flash fiction and poetry. We are looking for submissions that are both well written and digestible. Any genre is welcome but please refrain from explicit content.

- Submissions must not exceed 1,200 words if flash fiction, or 50 lines if poetry.
- May include promotional materials for the author such as links and contact info as well as a profile image. These are not required.
- May include visual imagery to support the submission such as but not limited to illustrations, drawings, and/or photography as approved by the editorial board.
- Received submissions will be reviewed by the editorial board. Accepted submissions will receive up to $25 depending on submission length, quality, and format.

REFERRALS

Referrals can be provided at willcoxtheater.com or by calling (520) 766-3335.

Interested in having a profile written on you and your work? Know someone who makes amazing art and deserves a spotlight? Let us know! We are always looking for talented community members to feature in our magazine!

- Subject must be a member of the Willcox or surrounding area community.
- Subject must be engaged in an artistic or creative field through occupation, hobby, or otherwise.